Broadsword Editorial

Welcome to Issue Number 40 of Broadsword.

There have been times when we wondered if this magazine would survive this long, but in the best traditions of National Socialism we have fought on. Struggle is the driving force behind all our political efforts and keeping Broadsword going is part of that ongoing struggle to build the British National Socialist Movement.

FINALLY THE ESTABLISHMENT STARTS TO GET THE MESSAGE !

As Broadsword goes to print the British Prime Minister David Cameron, a Conservative pro-Israel MP, who is a committed opponent of everything National Socialism stands for, openly admitted that in Britain and Europe
"MULTI-CULTURALISM HAS FAILED".

For a politician of Cameron's standing to publicly admit the failure of the bed-rock policy of decades of mainstream British political thinking is a sign that the situation has deteriorated to be a point where their multi-cultural dream is on the rocks and is beyond salvaging.

For British National Socialists we must not fall back on a position of wallowing in self congratulation and stating 'We Told You So', we must re-double our efforts to drive home our message of rejection of all forms of policy by central government that seeks to build a multi-racial society. We should be in no doubt that while the Prime Minister declares the failure of multi-culturalism, the government think-tanks and focus-groups will be hard at work seeking a replacement theory on which to build their so-called , 'liberal - progressive dream'.

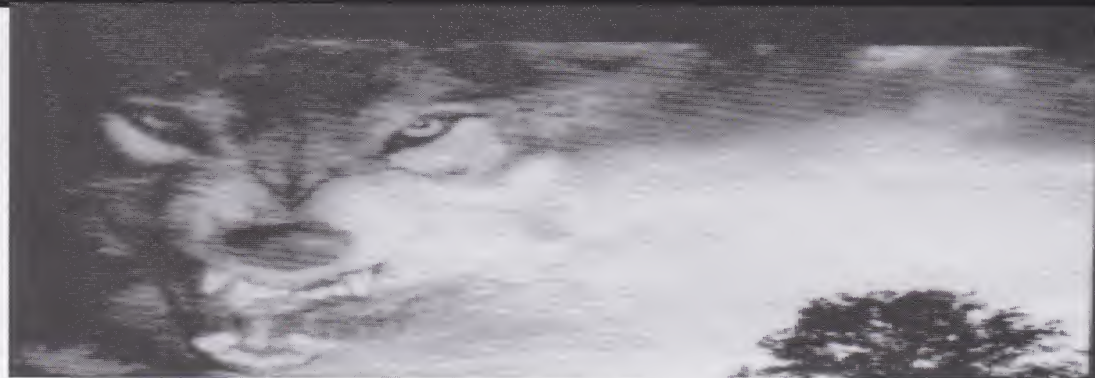

Although the overt policy of cultural and racial diversity has failed, the mainstream political parties are all determined to maintain the idea of a multi-racial Britain, they are just working on a new approach.

We can build on their failure. British Movement has been clear in its message since our foundation in 1968,
We Reject A Multi-Racial Britain.

We must work even harder to build up our grass roots movement and offer a real alternative to the British people. A clear and determined counter-culture, an alternative society that is mono-racial, Folkish, completley Aryan in perspective.

WE WILL HAVE OUR COUNTRY BACK !

THE BRITISH SECRET POLICE - EXPOSED Infiltration and Disruption Are Key Strategies

In recent issues of Broadsword magazine the Werwolf Column has stressed to its activist readers the dangers posed to lawful political activity by the assorted forces of the British 'Secret State'.

Now a new twist to this situation has developed in the national media when an undercover police officer was exposed inside the Environmental protest movements - because this was a left-wing cause the media have really got their teeth into it.

What this story does reveal is the complex network of police intelligence agencies, their tactics and their apparent lack of government control. The most surprising aspects are the length of time spent by individual officers as infiltrators and the cost of these spying operations. Obviously what the secret police can do to the Eco-movement they will also do to Nationalist and NS movements.

In this particular case, PC Mark Kennedy, a Metropolitan police officer was seconded to the National Public Order Intelligence Unit (NPOIU) and spent seven years as an undercover operative inside the Eco-protest groups, including intelligence gathering actions inside anarchist and anti-racist groups at the same time. This was no short term operation, Kennedy was living and spying inside these organisations for seven years, building up a presence, gaining trust as an activist and amassing a huge amount of information for his NPOIU controllers.

Kennedy infiltrated those organisations using a false identity, false name, fake driving licence, fake passport etc all supplied by the secret state.

Kennedy was not alone, he revealed the identity of a woman police agent in the same groups who had been an infiltrator for three years - these are not short lived spying missions - Kennedy also admitted that nationally there were dozens of other undercover police officers operating in political fringe organisations. The scale of secret state infiltration is massive, their intelligence and data gathering operation is massive and expensive. Somehow these undercover activities can be funded with almost open budgets, Mark Kennedy was costing £250,000 per years to maintain in his 'surveillance' role.

Amazingly these operations are not being run by MI5 or the old Special Branch.

The network of undercover secret intelligence operations are run by ACPO - the Association of Chief Police Officers - which is actually operated as a private company, but can have serving police officers 'seconded' to its specialist departments from any force in the country.

PC Mark Kennedy's mission was directed and funded by ACPO(TAM) which is the Association of Chief Police Officers' Terrorism and Allied Matters Committee. Of course they decide who and what constitutes a terrorist or a 'domestic threat' not the Home Secretary or the Home Office, but the Home Office does buy in their 'expert' services.

ACPO (TAM) also runs other units; the National Extremism Tactical Co-ordination Unit (NETCU); the National Domestic Extremism Unit (NDEU) which of course runs the National Public Order Intelligence Unit (NPOIU) - all very secretive, heavily funded and resourced but operating outside direct government control.

These shadowy secret state units make use of all the national police forces and their resources but answer to ACPO and influence decisions in both the Home Office and the Ministry of Justice.

It is ACPO that decides which organisations need to be infiltrated and disrupted. They also plant agent provocateurs inside organisations who work alongside regular police 'spotters' at demonstrations, public gatherings and meetings (including crowds at football matches). This is spying on a massive scale. They also target individuals in protest crowds for arresting officers - The Metropolitan Police Special Demonstration Squad (SDS) has the task of infiltration and disruption of political groups and activists. As one undercover police officer boasted to a national newspaper, "Once the SDS gets into an organisation it is effectively finished."

As Broadsword has said in this column before: You Have Been Warned !

MULTI-RACIAL MADNESS

Broadsword looks at the stories and incidents drawn from across the media in Britain that best illustrate the depths into which our country has sunk as the Government, the media, the police and the Race Relations industry conspire against the indigenous British people to impose a multi-cultural society on Britain. How British culture, values and traditions are undermined by political correctness, minority interests and racial equality. Stories which reveal the harsh reality of life in a multi-cultural Britain and the betrayal of the White British majority population.

YET MORE ENRICHMENT OF OUR CULTURE WITH 'FOREIGN' CUSTOMS AND PRACTICES

As Broadsword Has Commented Many Times Before, Our Liberal and Left-Wing Politicians and Opinion Makers Have Repeatedly Assured the British Public That Immigration is a 'Good Thing' Because the Immigrants 'Enrich' Our Culture with Their Exotic and Colourful Customs and Traditions. So Once Again Another Example of an 'Exotic' and 'Enriching' Non-British Custom - HONOUR KILLING!

Sikh Husband Arranged Machete Attack On His Wife Because He Had Lost 'Respect' When She Sought A Divorce.
December 3rd 2010 - The Old Bailey.

Harpreet Aulakh was sentenced to 28 years in prison for arranging the murder of his wife Geeta Aulakh. The accused husband, Harpreet Aulakh was an Indian-born Sikh, his wife Geeta was a Hindu born in the UK.

The court heard that Harpreet was obsessed with the idea that he had lost 'respect' in his community when his wife left him and was starting divorce proceedings. In order to maintain his 'honour and respect', Singh arranged for his wife to be killed as she left her workplace one evening in November 2009.

As Geeta Aulakh walked through a street in Greenford, West London, she was attacked with a machete by Sher Singh while Jaswant Dhillon acted as a look out. The two attackers had been paid by Harpreet to kill his wife. Both men were sentenced to 22 years in prison for their part in the murder.

Geeta Aulakh was hacked to death with a 14 inch bladed machete, she had deep multiple wounds to her body and head, her right hand was severed as she tried to shield herself from the frenzy of blows. Harpreet Aulakh had stayed in a West London pub to provide himself with an alibi at the time of the attack on his wife.

But the court heard that he had previously offered some of his friends £5,000 to kill his wife.

Broadsword has reported on many previous cases of so-called 'Honour' killings by Asian, Arab, Kurdish and Turkish members of the 'ethnic minority' communities - it is a type of foreign-cultural expression that Britain can well do without !

STOP FRYING BACON !
The Smell Is Offending Muslims !

October 2010 - Stockport

Council Planning officials ordered a Stockport cafe owner to remove an extractor fan or stop frying bacon because the council had received complaints from Muslim visitors to a building next door.

The owner of a neighbouring property had complained that her "Muslim friends had been left physically sick by the foul odour of cooking bacon"

Council officers ruled that there were "odours given off from the vent were unacceptable for neighbouring residents."

Given that the cafe - Beverley's Snack Shack is actually owned and run by a Turkish Muslim and his English wife, this has to be a classic example of the madness displayed by some local authorities in pandering to minority interests.

Of course, when faced with direct criticism from the press and other agencies, the council planning officials have hidden behind an issue of planning permission for the extractor fan had not been granted.

Did nobody mention that bacon is a traditional British food item?

What about those thousands of White British people who have to endure the stench of Asian and Oriental fast food outlets cooking whatever they are cooking ?

You can be sure that no action will be taken against cooking that offends British nostrils !

IF THESE PEOPLE HAD NOT BEEN ALLOWED TO SETTLE IN BRITAIN, THESE PROBLEMS WOULD NOT EXIST

MULTI-RACIAL MADNESS

More Multi-racial Madness Stories Taken From Both the Local and National Press Which Betray the Level of Insanity Behind the Pursuit of Political Correctness and the Failed Concepts of Multi-Culturalism, Racial Integration and a Multi-Racial Society

IRAQI ASYLUM-SEEKER Hayrish Mohamed - Refused asylum in 2004 - absconded and went on the run for six years - was arrested harrasment and suspicion of assault and possession of an offensive weapon in 2007 and was arrested again in December 2009 for fraud and attempting to pervert the course of justice. - But He Will Not Face Prison or Deportation because the Judge said jailing him was not in the public interest ! During his time on the run he has married a Slovakian woman who lives in Sheffield and had two children by her. So under EU residency rules he cannot be deported and has re-applied for UK residency status and wants a full time job as a Kurdish translator so he can pay off his fines !

More Joys Of Multi-Culturalism

November 11th 2010 - Armistice Day - London

About 30 Islamic extremists from the group 'Muslims Against Crusades' exercise their 'democratic' rights to freedom of speech and public protest in the United Kingdom by openly insulting Britain's war dead. Effectively insulting the culture and traditions of the host nation, these individuals not only held up offensively worded placards and chanted provocative anti-British slogans, but also burned a large poppy in a gesture calculated to cause maximum offence to the indigenous British population.

Other placards on display carried the slogans; "Islam will dominate" and "Our dead are in paradise, your dead are in hell."

For once the police actually arrested some of the offenders; two for public order offences (burning the poppy) four for affray and one for possession of a Class A drug.

Broadsword wonders if such rights of freedom of expression to protest by European Christians could take place in an islamic country such as Saudi Arabia, the Gulf States or Indonesia?

The African Schoolboy Asylum-Seekers Who Weren't - Schoolboys That Is.....

Obviously there was some confusion in the immigration services.

In September 2010 two alleged juvenile asylum-seekers from Guinea, West Africa were removed from classes at Acklam Grange school in Middlesborough when it was realised that the two were in fact men in their twenties !

One was registered in year 9 alongside 13 and 14 year olds, and was found to be in his early twenties.

More worrying was the other, a 23 year old, who was registered in year 11 and was found to have started a 'relationship' with a 14 year old girl.

Not surprisingly the immigration services are promising an investigation of the case and have actually hinted at deportation of the pair.

More interesting was the revelation that these two 'schoolboys' had been living in council accomodation (at local tax-payers expense) in the company of two females they claimed were their sisters together with a so-called male 'guardian'.

Norwich Man Had A BNP Poster In The Window Of His Flat - So A Black Taxi-Driver Attacked Him And Forced Him To Eat The Poster !

In a moment of political tolerance, taxi-driver Vernon Lucas, who is black, decided to punch and throttle Darren Peach before instructing him to eat the British National Party poster he had at his flat.

Lucas appeared at Norwich Crown Court in November 2010 on charges of assault causing actual bodily harm. The attack took place in Norwich on June 28th 2010 when Lucas forced his way into Mr Peacher's home after noticing the BNP poster being displayed and attacked him.

Vernon Lucas was jailed for just 8 months.

MOSCOW :-December 2010 - Nationalist activists stage mass protests

Moscow - December 10th to December 14th 2010

On December 6th, a young Russian, Yegor Sviridov, a supporter of Spartak Moscow football club was shot dead during a street fight between Spartak fans and a group of Asiatic men from the eastern region of the Caucasus. His death sparked a wave of protests and near riot demonstrations in central Moscow. Angry groups of young Russian nationalists attacked groups of non-Russian and non-Slavic immigrants. Over 1,000 people were arrested over four days of racial unrest and street action by over 5,000 Russian Nationalists, National Socialists and pro-Nationalist football supporters from Spartak Moscow supporters clubs.

An e-mail message sent to British Movement from Moscow reads;
"Dear White Comrades around the globe.

This is the face of Hungarian Nationalism that the European Union dislikes.

The Leftist controlled EU has tried to dictate domestic policies to member states before and previously threatened Austria over so-called 'racist immigration policies'. Now Brussels is trying to bully Hungary for seeking to defend its national interests.

The EU objects to Hungarian domestic legislation that seeks to curb immigration and also looks to control the Roma Gypsy population within Hungarian borders.

Greek National Socialists of the Golden Dawn have scored unusual levels of success in the city council elections for Athens. The Golden Dawn took 5.3 % of the total vote which secured a seat for their leader and narrowly missed gaining a second seat. In some districts of the city Golden Dawn took up to 20% of the votes cast.

This success reflects a considerable increase in support for the Golden Dawn in the Greek capital, where just one year ago Golden Dawn candidates could only gain 0.51% of the vote.

14 WORDS:- We Must Secure the Existence of Our People and a Future For White Children

OVERCOMING THE LEFTIST/LIBERAL MINDSET

The Article Below Appeared in the 'Family' Supplement of The Guardian Newspaper on Saturday January 29th 2011 and Illustrates the Influence of Attitudes That Have To Be Challenged and Reversed.

This article was dominated by the liberal idea that anybody who is opposed to non-white immigration and racial integration is not only wrong, but their opinions are not worthy of consideration and have no value in modern British society.

The liberal attitudes towards race and inter-racial relationships exhibited in this article are presented as being the only socially acceptable positions that can be publicly aired in the British media.

At first glance the above article, which occupied two full pages in a broadsheet supplement, is just another example of a typical left-of-centre news item designed to attack 'racist attitudes' and present a positive image of 'multi-culturalism'. Sadly, this article was more than just a liberal 'feel-good' story. It illustrated just how entrenched these attitudes have become amongst the liberal and left ist middle-classes. How easily these attitudes are being presented as the face of Britain's multi-racial, multi-cultural future. And how those individuals who are deemed to be 'racist' are presented as social dinosaurs, out of touch with current thinking, doomed to fade into oblivion when such 'racist' attitudes eventually die out with the generations that grew up in 'pre-multicultural' Britain. As National Socialists we must present a counter argument that is every bit as strong, we must undermine the dominance of liberal thinking and undo their influence on the minds of the British public.

December 2010 - BRITISH MOVEMENT WEB SITE UNDER ATTACK U.S BASED 'ANTI-FASCIST HACKERS' CLAIM RESPONSIBILITY

In a desperate campaign to silence pro-White and National Socialist web-sites world-wide, self-styled 'Anti-Fascist' hackers disrupted the British Movement web-site. It is a measure of how afraid these people are that the Truth might get out into the mainstream that they resort to this level of cyber-sabotage. Naturally British Movement will not submit to this attempt to silence our On-Line voice and every attempt will be made to clear this unwanted stoppage on our freedom of speech and expression.

Fortunately our web-team were able to undo most of the damage within 24 hours of the first attack and the British Movement web site was back on line.

BROADSWORD'S CAMPAIGN AGAINST 'POLITICAL CORRECTNESS'

A Weak Judicial System Fails To Deal Harshly With Sex Offenders Liberal Policies Are Being Forced On British Society.

British Movement Demands A Crack-Down On Paedophiles and Sexual Degeneracy.

SEX CRIMES OR CULTURE CLASH ?

Across the Closing months of 2010 There Has Been A Series of Court Trials in Nottingham, Sheffield, Derby and Leicester Focused on Gangs of Asian Men Who Have Groomed and Sexually Abused Under-age Girls.

The Media Has Deliberately Played Down the Racial Aspects of the Cases Even Though the Majority of the Victims Were White and All the Abusers Were Asian/Non-White.

There is a disturbing pattern to these cases which reflect previous cases in the last decade with similar cases being brought to trial in Keighley, West Yorkshire, Bradford and in Blackburn and Bury, Lancashire. One local media report went so far as to suggest that there were cultural issues at play here, where Muslim Asian men were 'confused' by the way young British teenage girls dressed or were allowed to 'date' men and boys. That in some South-East Asian cultures girls under sixteen are allowed to marry and have children.

Broadsword rejects these 'culture-clash' explanations as a soft liberal excuse for serious sexual abuse and the deliberate sexual exploitation of vulnerable young girls by predatory Asian men.

Operation Retriever - The Police Investigation in Derby

Broadsword has been provided with a stack of information gleaned from local sources in Derby and Leicester in regard to the Operation Retriever case. But also remembers the Keighley case back in 2004 when one of the TV channels pulled out of broadcasting the details of the Keighley case at the request of the West Yorkshire Police who feared that the programme would give a massive boost to the British National Party in the elections that year. The Derby case is just one more in a sad list of such cases, since 1997 there have been 17 such cases in the Midlands and North of England, out of those cases 56 men were convicted of sexual offences and grooming, of those 56 convicted only three were not Asians.

In the Operation Retriever case nine Asian men were convicted on sex charges relating to 27 victims in Derby, of those victims 22 were white.

Some of the victims were as young as 12 years old, Detective Superintendent Debbie Platt, who led the investigations in Derby said, "In 23 years of my career in the police force I have never dealt with anything like this."

Central to the abuse and sex offences were Abid Mohammed Saddique and Mohammed Ramaan Liaquat, they were convicted of a string of offences going back over two years; rape, sexual assault, aiding and abetting rape, sexual activity with a child, causing a child under 13 to engage in sexual activity and causing a person under 18 to be involved in pornography.

They had filmed some of their offences on mobile phones.

There were other charges too relating to Class A drugs, false imprisonment, intimidating witnesses, assault, and attempting to pervert the course of justice. But out of all the convictions and terms of imprisonment, only one guilty man, Faisal Mehmood, has been deported to Pakistan.

 As this article was being prepared, 'the Times' newspaper began a series of articles on the subject and called for a formal government investigation. Astoundingly the former Labour Home Secretary Jack Straw spoke out to condemn those he called "young men of Pakistani-heritage who target vulnerable young white girls."

Finally the national media admitted that there was a problem and as a final confirmation the police in Lancashire admitted that they had arrested a dozen or so Asian men in Rochdale on charges of grooming and sexually abusing underage girls.

National Socialism is the guardian of Britain's traditional moral standards. British Movement calls for a national crusade against moral degeneracy.

Clear out the drug dealers and the sub-culture of street drugs.

Crack down on perverts and sexual degenerates.

Launch a nation wide campaign to expose and purge our society of child molesters and paedophiles.

Mill Hill Shooting was Pre-Arranged Gang Fight

December 27th 2010 - North London; 17 Year Old Black Youth Shot Dead Was 17th Teenager Killed In Gang Related Violence This Year.

The shooting of 17 year old Marvin Henry was the second gang related murder in the week between Christmas and the New Year. Samuel Adelagun age 16 was shot dead in Plaistow, east London on Christmas Day.

Marvin Henry was killed during fighting between rival street gangs in the Bray Road area of Mill Hill just after midnight on December 27th. Local people told police that the fight was pre-arranged and was part of an ongoing dispute between local gangs. Police arrested ten local youths and a 21 year old woman, the youngest person arrested was aged 14.

The gang culture, language and rituals of Black street gangs is outside the understanding of most White people and to those living outside London, Birmingham or Manchester is probably a complete mystery to the average White British citizen. This is best illustrated by some of the hand-written messages left amongst the flowers laid at the scene of the killing;

"Liclle Marvin. It's Peak G. I don't even know what to say. Words can't describe how I'm feeling right now. RIP Bro."
"Love you Marvin. Wheelie those clouds ! B."
"To one of da good brothers."

No Public Inquiry Into 7/7 Bombings In Case It Reflected Badly On British Muslims - Home Office Advice In 2005 That Was Hushed Up

It is always good to know that our politicians have the best interests of the British public at heart when they make important decisions.

Now it emerges that back in 2005 as London was still reeling from the July Bombings, Senior Civil servants warned Labour Government ministers not to order a Public Inquiry in case it was to "focus negatively" on the Muslim communities in Britain !

According to reports released under the Freedom of Information Act, the then Labour Home Secretary Charles Clarke was warned by Sir John Gieve, permanent secretary at the Home Office, that he risked the "potential cost of upsetting Muslims".

Sir John Gieve warned of "potential community tension in the event of any inquiry ame to be perceived as an exrercise in special pleading by one community or alternatively if it was believed that it focused negatively on the Muslim community."

Considering that the bombers were all fanatical Muslim jihadists who had travelled to London from Luton and Yorkshire to bomb and kill 52 innocent people and maim God knows how many more - putting 'community cohesion' before public interests is a bit rich even for a Labour Government !

Marvin Henry, (AKA 'Spooky') age 17 was shot dead during the Mill Hill gang fight.

HEALTH WARNING !

TUBERCULOSIS

The so-called 'White Plague' of Victorian England Has Returned

40% of New TB Cases in the UK are in London

Increase in Drug Resistant Cases

Modern drugs and NHS health care had almost eliminated TB from the UK by the 1980's. The UK now has the highest rate of TB in Europe and over the past 15 years it has been rising. In 2009 there were more than 9,000 cases in the UK - of these 40% were in London. The presence of HIV infections has made the situation worse.

In December 2010 the medical journal 'The Lancet' published the figures quoted here and admitted that the increase in numbers has "been largely in people who were not born in the UK, but in 2009, most of them (85%) had lived in the country for at least two years."

Which is an admission that the increase in London and the UK TB is another unpublicised side effect of immigration from countries outside Europe.

"The ominous situation in London is reminiscent of the unexpected outbreaks of multi-drug resistant tuberculosis in New York and California prisons in the early 1990's."

This Is An Example of How the Press Reports A Version of Events
This is a Distortion of the Truth

A CLASSIC EXAMPLE OF PRESS OVER REACTION IN ROYSTON, HERTFORDSHIRE

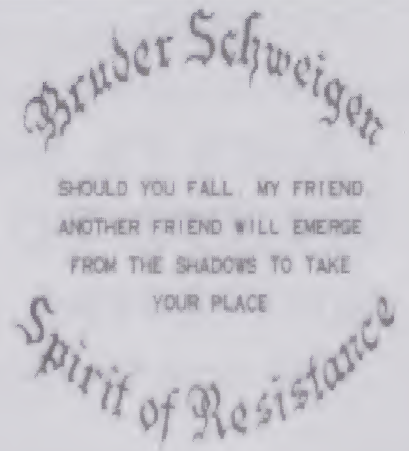

October 2010 - Royston in North Hertfordshire

The over reaction by two local newspapers is illustrated here, the cause of the hysterical press coverage was down to the anger of a local Labour Party councillor, (aka 'Red Ted') who discovered that a lawful and disciplined British Movement meeting was taking place in a local pub. The private meeting took place without incident and dispersed afterwards without incident.

The only problems on the night were the verbal outbursts from the lone Labour Party activist who seemed to think that he had the right to dictate what kind of meetings could be held in the town. The local press provided the follow-up story.

REMEMBERING THE ORDER

The White Power Underground Fighters
Who Shook America in the 1980's

THE SILENT BROTHERHOOD

In Broadsword Issue 39 we reported the death of Bruce Carroll Pierce, one of the last remaining original members of the American White Resistance guerrilla organisation The Order. In this article Broadsword seeks to remember The Order and to remind its readers of the fate of those American patriots and racial Nationalists who chose to wage war on 'ZOG'

Bruce Carroll Pierce died in the Allenwood Federal Correctional Complex in Pennsylvania on August 16th 2010, he was serving 225 years for his part in The Order and specifically his alleged part in the assassination of the Colorado based Jewish chat-show host Alan Berg in June 1984.

Three years earlier David Lane had died in a federal prison where he was serving 150 years for his part in the Order and for "violating Alan Berg's civil rights by killing him". David Lane was the originator of the motto "14 Words" and wrote and published his ideas from prison under the name David Lane Wodensson.

Other surviving Order activists remain either in the American federal prison system or have been released on parole.

Founded in 1983 at a candle-lit oath-taking ceremony at Bob Mathews' property in Metaline Falls, Washington state.

The original group consisted of Bob Mathews and just eight other men. They swore a lengthy oath dedicating themselves to the struggle, "I, as a free Aryan man, hereby swear an unrelenting oath upon the green graves of our sires, upon the children in the wombs of our wives"concluding ..." I as an Aryan warrior, swear myself to complete secrecy to the Order and total loyalty to my comrades."

The Order was also known by the name 'The Silent Brotherhood', a direct translation of the German words 'Bruder Schweigen'.

David Lane photographed in the exercise yard of a federal prison in 2003. He died in prison on May 28th 2007 aged 69 years.

Robert J. Mathews - founder of the Bruders Schweigen killed in a gun battle with the FBI in August 1984.

Mathews holds the original emblem of the Bruders Schweigen - a stylised shield and Viking battle-axe. The shield carried a series of mottos written in Old Norse, German and Gaelic which translated as;

"To Be My Battle-Axe and Weapons of War".

"Silent Brothers"

"Army of the Folk"

"By Ones, By Tens, By Scores, By Legions"

The neo-Nazi gunman who authorities said fired 13 bullets into Denver talk-show host Alan Berg has died of natural causes in the federal penitentiary where he was serving a 252-year

How one American newspaper reported the death of Bruce Carroll Pierce.

THE FATE OF THE ORDER

"The FBI has been able to keep this war secret only because up until now we have been doing nothing more than growing and preparing. the government however, seems determined to force the issue, so we have no choice left but to stand up and fight back.
Hail Victory ! "

Robert Jay Mathews

Bob Mathews was killed at the end of a 36 hour gun battle with an FBI SWAT team at a remote hideout on Whidbey Island, Puget Sound, Washington state in December 1984.

After the death of Bob Mathews, many members and supporters of the Order were quickly rounded up by the Federal authorities, some were betrayed by family members or former comrades like Randall Rader and Thomas Martinez, who did a deal with the FBI. The surviving key players went on the run, scattering across the USA.

Bruce Carroll Pierce was captured in March 1985 in Georgia.

David Lane was captured in March 1985 in Winston-Salem, betrayed by former comrade Ken Loff.

Randy Evans was captured at the end of an armed siege in April 1985, Evans remained silent in court and was sentenced to 40 years.

Andrew Barnhill was arrested along with Richard Kemp in January 1985, they both stood trial in Seattle on conspiracy and racketeering charges and were jailed for 40 years.

David Tate was captured in Missouri in April 1985 after a shoot out with State troopers and a man hunt through the Ozark Mountains.

Richard Scutari was the last of the Order to be captured after a long period on the run, he was taken prisoner in Texas in the spring of 1986. He was sentenced to 40 years for conspiracy and racketeering.

(In the interests of authenticity Broadsword has retained the American spellings and Richard Kemp's punctuation)

In memoriam to my friend David Lane, I ask only that those of us who grieve not dishonor his life or passing by disregarding his commitment to the cause by forgetting the mettle of this man and the sacrifice he made both before and after his incarceration. What I personally will carry within my heart until my end days is the undying love that David held for his people, and the fact that despite efforts to discount and debase that love it remained true and constant even as he drew his dying breath. Remember, it nothing else, David Lane lived and died for the struggle to secure the future existence for us and our children. I can think of no more appropriate words than those of the Havamal.

One thing I know that never Dies is the fame of a Dead Man's Deeds

THE PROTOCOLS

FACT OR FICTION?

A Forgery? A Hoax?

Or Do the Protocols Explain What Is Happening Today?

THE PROTOCOLS of the Meetings of the Learned Elders of Zion

Older National Socialists and Racial Nationalists will often refer to some shift in government policy or world event with the simple statement, "Well it fits exactly with what is written in The Protocols"

But what exactly are or were 'The Protocols'? 'The Protocols' is an abbreviation of the formal title of the publication "The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion". In modern times, the book is almost universally condemned by all academics and media sources in the Western World as an anti-semitic hoax or a forgery, although in the Islamic world the publication is regarded as genuine.

However, the denial of the Protocols in the West was not always the case and in the early part of the 20th Century the book was not only accepted as genuine but widely reported and translated into many languages. Not surprisingly assorted editions of the Protocols were printed and circulated throughout Europe by National Socialist and Fascist organisations during the 1930's and 1940's. The Protocols was published and circulated on a massive scale in National Socialist Germany. In Great Britain and Ireland the publication and distribution of an English language edition of the Protocols rested almost exclusively with the Britons Publishing Society.

The Protocols first appeared in English in 1920, translated from the original Russian by Victor Marsden, a British journalist who had lived in Russia for years, who on his return to England published the original English language edition of "The Protocols of the Meetings of the Learned Elders of Zion".

The Russian language publication that Victor Marsden translated was first published in 1905 by Professor Sergyei Nilus and purports to be based on documents circulated at the First Zionist Congress in Basle, Switzerland in 1897.

Who the alleged 'Elders' were has been the subject of much argument, debate and denial, but one source writing on behalf of the Britons Publishing Society claimed that the 'Elders' were a secret committee of three hundred prominent Jewish men, this claim was based on a statement by a leading Jewish German Socialist Walter Rathenau in 1912, who said,

"Three hundred men, each of whom knows all the others govern the fate of the European continent and they elect their successors from their entourage."

It has long been claimed that the Protocols are evidence of not only a secret Jewish 'cabal' pulling the strings behind world events, but also evidence of the link between Freemasonry, secret societies such as the Illuminati and ancient Jewish sects.

One recent American commentator speculated that there was strong evidence in associating Freemasonry with the writing of the Protocols, "When we read the infamous Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, we see that the entire program is framed in a Freemasonic format".

In the years following the First World War, the idea that the Protocols showed evidence of a secret body directing geo- politics, international diplomacy, trade, economics and finance across Europe and Russia was extended to include the United States, South America and colonial Africa, later still the reach became global.

When the Protocols first appeared in English, the initial response of the media of the day, politicians and opinion shapers was to accept the publication as genuine. The London based 'Times' newspaper stated on May 8th 1920, that the Protocols were, "this uncanny note of prophecy, prophecy in parts fulfilled, in parts far gone in the way of fulfilment."

The famous American motor manufacturer Henry Ford, fully accepted the authenticity of the Protocols, he commented widely on this through the newspaper he owned 'The Dearborn Independent' and sponsored an American edition of the Protocols.

Of course opponents of the authenticity of the Protocols are quick to point out that Henry Ford was a prominent and outspoken anti-semite, as were the Britons Publishing Society.

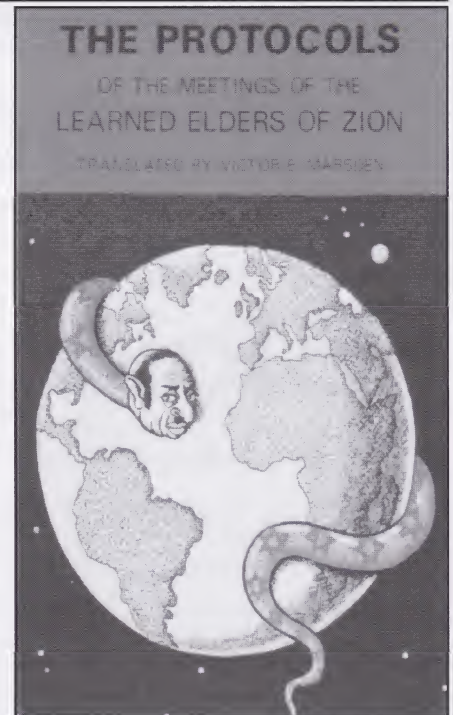

Unfortunately the critics position was not helped when in 1948, a New York lawyer, Henry Klein, himself a Jew, wrote,

"The United Nations is Zionism. It is the super government mentioned many times in the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, promulgated between 1897 and 1905."

THE PROTOCOLS FACT OR FICTION?

The Protocols of the Meetings of the Learned Elders of Zion was first translated into English in 19 and was then widely published and circulated in Britain and the Empire by The Britons Publishing Society. The cover of the edition reproduced on page 14 opposite was The Britons reprint of 1941, the cover with the lurid illustration on this page was the 1978 reprint by British Patriot Publications - the British Movement sales and publishing service of the period.

The Protocols has been reprinted and reproduced in many languages and editions since it first appeared in Russian in 1905, it was once widely available in main stream bookshops, this is still the case in many Arabic and Islamic countries. However due to its notoriety and questionable authenticity, in the West it is now only available in English from so-called 'Far-Right' book stockists and anti-Zionist bookshops.

LEGAL CHALLENGES TO THEIR AUTHENTICITY

Over the years there have been a number of legal challenges to the authenticity of the Protocols and conventional wisdom amongst academics, authors, historians, the media and Jewish writers in particular is that the Protocols are a vicious hoax, forgeries and an anti-semitic smear against all Jews.

The first challenges to the veracity of the Protocols came within weeks of its appearance in Britain. The standard response became that the documents were that in 1905 Nilus had prepared the first Russian edition on behalf of the Czarist secret police, the Okhrana, using an earlier French publication, 'the Dialogues of Geneva' as the model. The Okhrana had intended the Protocols to be used as justification for anti-Jewish pogroms in Czarist Russia.

It is interesting to note that while it is certain that the Protocols originated in Russia, Russian language editions were almost all destroyed after the collapse of the Czarist government and in the wave of revolutions that culminated in the Bolshevik victory of 1917, "All copies that were known to exist in Russia were destroyed by the Kerensky regime, and under his successors the possession of a copy by anyone in Sovietland was crime sufficient to ensure the owners' being shot on sight."

One of the first acts of the new Soviet government was to make 'Anti-semitism' a crime.

In Britain and the USA across 1920 and 1921 there was a wave of criticism and denial of the Protocols in the media of the day. However there were still those even of the political Left who were unsure. In London in October 1920 'The Spectator' seemed to hedge its bets, "upon that much vexed subject the authenticity of 'the Protocols of Zion' we shall not enter, except to say that if the document is a forgery, as alleged, then it is one of the most remarkable in the history of literature."

Not surprisingly there were formal challenges in the courts, but not until June 1933, when the Federation of Jewish Communities of Switzerland together with the Berne Jewish Community brought a legal action against a group of activists from the Swiss National Front, an organisation circulating French and German language editions of the Protocols in Switzerland. The court action was brought under the Swiss Civil Code claiming that the Protocols was a forgery and requesting that the Swiss courts prohibit its publication and promotion on those grounds.

The case ran for two years and there were several unusual aspects to the way the case hearings were conducted. Finally in May 1935, the court declared that the Protocols was indeed a forgery - but the verdict was actually announced in some Jewish newspapers before it had formally been announced in court!

Not surprisingly Jewish news media across the world pointed to the Swiss court judgement as proof that indeed the Protocols was a forgery.

Unfortunately for the critics, the verdict was overturned two years later in November 1937 by the Swiss Court of Criminal appeal and the previous judgement was quashed.

After 1945, the only English language issues of the Protocols in circulation were either existing copies of pre-war printings by the Britons, or cheaply produced versions circulated by fringe militant Christian groups in the USA.

British Movement created some small element of controversy by republishing the Protocols in the late 1970's. A defiant gesture at the time and an attempt to generate renewed interest in the publication during a period of increasing hostility to Zionism and the actions of the State of Israel.

Broadsword now throws open the debate to its readers; are The Protocols Fact or Fiction?

If there is sufficient response Broadsword will publish those comments and opinions in a future issue of this magazine and examine some of the actual Protocols in more detail.

Charles Kingsley

It is a sad reflection of modern Britain and indeed across the world that the so-called Environment or 'Green movement' is firmly entrenched in the control of the political-Left. The Left direct the agenda of Green politics and dictate how environmental and conservation issues should be discussed, debated and presented. At the present time the language and literature of environmental concerns, wildlife protection and conservation is that of the political-Left, carefully screened to ensure that any hints of race or race related issues are deliberately excluded. However, so-called 'Green politics' are of interest and relevance to the world view of both National Socialists and racial Nationalists. Our Blood and Soil ideology is the very foundation on which modern Eco-politics and nature conservation was originally rooted, it was only in the post-1945 period that our political enemies on the Left purged the environmental debate of any unwanted 'racist' connotations. The history of environmental politics and conservation was censored to remove any mention of the work done in Germany and Western Europe during the 1930's and early 1940's to protect wildlife and landscapes, forests and areas of natural beauty. Recognition of the writings and policies of National Socialist figures such as Walter Darre and Hermann Goering or Fascists like Henry Williamson were edited out of the Green debate. It was only with great reluctance that the books of Henry Williamson were left on the school reading lists in the UK, with any reference to Williamson's support for Sir Oswald Mosley carefully omitted.

The time has come to regain a National Socialist perspective in the world of Green politics - race is an issue and should not be excluded from either the national or international debate on environmental issues. Race should not be taken out of the arguments against the exploitation of the global environment by international companies and trans-national business interests; they exploit and destroy the natural world in pursuit of profit because their cosmopolitan world view has no room for concepts like Blood and Soil.

The countryside and wildlife of our country matters to us as National Socialists because our ancestral roots bind us to the land and its natural environment. The forces that despoil the land and poison our rivers and coastal waters poisons us as a people and destroys our birth right. National Socialism is by its very nature a 'Green' political movement and our need to survive as a people is reflected in the need to preserve our race and folk together with the natural environment of our homeland.
Blood and Soil is Green politics.

"The more we become acquainted with our ancestors, the more proudly we refer to them - however, the greater becomes our duty, too, to prove ourselves worthy of them."
SS Leitheft. 1944.

Our Readers Say.....

Book Review: - Children of the Sun by Max Schaefer

I came across a review of the book "Children of the Sun" by Max Schaefer, in the 'Metro' newspaper whilst on the way to work on the bus one morning. It stated the basic outline of the book; it follows two men, Tony a 'neo-nazi', who is secretly homosexual, then there is James who is an openly homo-sexual screenwriter.

The book follows Tony through the 1970's, 80's and 90's, and James, in which he researches the political far Right and becomes obsessed with the deceased Nicky Crane.

Of particular interest to British Movement is that in the book, Tony starts and remains a member of BM and Blood and Honour.

Chapter headings are the titles of Skrewdriver songs, and in between each chapter are newspaper cuttings of relevance, such as "Nazi gang leader is jailed" taken from the Daily Mirror, 17th June 1981. or snippets from various Nationalist publications such as 'Spearhead' or the Blood and Honour magazine.

Numerous real life characters from far Right politics appear in the book, including amongst others, one Nick Griffin, Arthur Niven, Nicky Crane and even Savitri Devi ! As you might have thought, the book is completely against the racial movement in this country, it portrays British Movement in a bad light , as well as describing numerous homosexual acts, which I won't go into for obvious reasons !

It appears to me that Max Schaefer has read the book "White Riot" by Nick Lowles, "No Retreat" by Dave Hann and Steve Tilzey, thrown in homosexuality and based a book on it. I would not be surprised if the BBC or similarly politically correct, Left wing producer reads this and scents a potential TV drama in the offing.

Although the book mentions British Movement quite heavily, I would not recommend buying it!

If you must, borrow it from the library. It is typical propaganda from the enemy.

What are we to make of the antics of the Left today in Britain ?

If press reports are correct, they are real nasty folk. Those who have read into the history of the Left know this fact and that is why we oppose the Left getting power. The fact is that the Left absolutely slaughter people they consider to be opponents, and all who criticise them are deemed deadly enemies.

Today in Scotland this has taken a modern twist. It is no exaggeration to say "join the Left and shop your comrades for personal gain.

Thus George McNeilace of the Left-wing Scottish Socialist Party recorded a conversation with his leader Tommy Sheridan. Press reports say McNeilace was paid £200,000 for this recording by the "News of the World", the 'NOW' seem to have some sort of antipathy for Sheridan.

McNeilace seems to be an unpleasant character, who has a record of house breaking.

This recording coup appears to be his most rewarding bit of treachery. Speaking of house=breaking, Gerry Gable of 'Searchlight' seems to have engaged in this behaviour too.

Some years ago, he broke into the house of Daving Irving, the well-known writer and historian. In court Gable was said to have done the dirty work to obtain evidence on Irving to hand to Special Branch. Is it not astonishing, the criminal mindness of the Left ?

They seem to think that it is OK to carry out a crime if it is for a political purpose or the advancement of Leftism.

Gable has a plush £500,000 house in the Essex stockbroker belt. I read somewhere that his wife (fourth wife) is a tax expert and has written a book on how to avoid paying taxes - the book appears to be popular amongst certain lawyers and businessmen, who are reluctant to pay taxes. Gerry Gable was a 'copper's nark' for some time, you can read about his informing in back copies of 'The New Statesman' from 1980. It seems Gable shopped his Left Wing and Irish Republican friends to Special Branch. Yet there are still Left-wing trade unionists who give Gable tens of thousands of pounds of their members' money. So who can trust a Lefty after that ?

So if you want a high life style like George McNeilace or Gerry Gable, shop your Left-wing comrades to the cops or the media.

How can folk vote for the Left after such examples of treachery ? It is time to turn Right and vote Nationalism instead of the failed politics of Leftist internationalism.

RADICAL OPINIONS

Opinions expressed in this column do not necessarily reflect the official British Movement position or policy but are included to stimulate debate and discussion on a wide range of topics of interest to our National Socialist and racial Nationalist readership.

THE MENACE OF MISCEGENATION

An Article by Thunor

"Evolution shows that in the long run, if superior mixes with the inferior, the product is half-way between inferior to what you originally started with in the superior group - in other words mongrelized," wrote George Lincoln Rockwell in an era when segregation was being ended by the liberal elite law-makers in Washington D.C.

Prior separate development had in effect buffered the corrosive effects of black crime, drugs, rape etc from White America. The vice and slums of the negro ghetto were a million miles removed from the prosperous Aryan America of the 1950's and early 1960's. However more sinister forces were at work, with an agenda of ghettoising the USA and mongrelizing its racial elite in the interests of a "New World Order", populated by what the great English racial theorist Houston Stewart Chamberlain termed,

"a herd of pseudo-hebraic mestizos, a people beyond all doubt degenerate, mentally and morally."

In effect their liberal elite sought the destruction of separate and distinct racial grouping through MISCEGENATION, similarly too nation states were to disappear under the aegis of the United Nations, forerunner to the "New World Order". Both racial ruination and national destruction were in fact cornerstones of the murderous philosophy of communism, or more accurately the social-engineering espoused by Marx in his "Das Kapital".

The rich variations in languages and cultures were to be submerged in a global identity, even a universal language 'esperanto' was proposed, the Earth's population was to be reduced to a dumb, brown consumer mass, fed on a toxic diet of MacDonalds and Coca-Cola. Junk food, junk culture, junk people, dictated to by a political global elite, who, whilst espousing the doctrine of democracy actually brutalised and destroyed nations and peoples disagreeable to that agenda with America's military might.

The term MISCEGENATION, or race-mixing is as old as time itself. Ancient Rome and Egypt the greatest Aryan civilisations in history both fell victim to the suicidal cult of racial inter-breeding, with the resultant decline and inevitable collapse of the political and social structures which had sought to civilise and engender culture into the coloured races incorporated into their empires as serfs and slaves. Ultimately the blinkered liberal thinking of the Egyptian and Roman leadership led to the perverse and destructive ideas of 'equality' and from such was born the first mongrel human being, (Original Sin as described in the Bible), and history records the last emperor of Rome as a mulatto.

The propaganda of the multi-culturalist is at times blatant and at other times subtle. Especially galling is the introduction of race-mixed characters into childrens' TV. Then we have the essential 'role-models' for any young, brainwashed white woman seeking a father for her child - President Barack Obama, footballers Theo Walcott and Ashley Cole, sportsdriver Lewis Hamilton. All mulattos, all leaders in politics or sporting achievements, all lauded by the media pundits, and positively worshipped by the social-engineers. However, NO mention of the physical and mental retards, the genetic cripples, the Harvey Prices of this world; blind, deaf, beyond help or hope. No awards or special programmes about the hundreds of thousands of Harveys, victims of mongrelised, mutated and mixed race geneology.

No mention of the raft of deadly diseases prevalent in mixed race (primarily negro/white half-caste peoples) diseases such as Sickle-Cell Anemia. In fact in keeping with the political-correct censorship in the medical profession nowadays, such ailments are virtually eliminated from mention in medical journals in this era of censored news, facts and opinions. It goes without saying that the medical profession as a constituent and willing accomplice in the conspiracy of social-engineering.

Nothing good can come from the destruction of ANY race. True, all races are different, even individual sub-groups of Indo-Europeans are genetically and biologically diverse, and it must be our stated goal to both recognise such differences, preserving our own unique national and racial characteristics, and in the process, wish others well. The REAL race-haters, in the guise of the liberal politician or social engineer, seeks to destroy such characteristics. It is they, not the Asian in Asia, the African in Africa or the Chinese in China who are our REAL enemy!

"MISCEGENATION, that is race-mixing, is and always has been the greatest threat to the survival of the Aryan race" - Wodensson David Lane.

British Movement Women's Division

I was going to write an article about another entirely different subject, but this one is something that I feel is of the utmost importance, and so I have turned my attention thus..

I now a young woman who has a son. He is a very bright boy with much potential, his reading and writing skills are well above average, as are his abilities in maths, art and sports. The boy is not yet in his teens but is of an age where he should be perfectly capable of doing most day to day things for himself. However, his mother still does an immeasurable amount of quite unnecessary things for him; tying his shoelaces, tidying up after him, letting him eat with his fingers, basically stifling his social development. The boy is now without any of the usual social and life skills of a child of his age.

What has happened to that boy's potential as an adult?

He will grow up expecting even the most basic tasks to be done for him, even though he is a bright, capable young boy.

Although I hate to say it, there are a shameful number of people within our movement who have the same attitude as that young boy. Each and every one of us has a talent of one form or another that we can offer towards our struggle. Each and every one of us is capable of 'something'. Yet so many depend on so few doing the tasks. It is much easier for some of us to sit and talk about what we need to do and how we need to structure the advancement and building of our organisation, but then sit back and expect others to do it for us.

For those few of us who do the work, rather like the mother picking up toys after her quite capable son, it is a two-edged sword. We encourage our Folk, and we ask for their support and assistance time after time. But it is still the same people who come up with the goods.

We 'doers' like the frustrated parent, ask ourselves on a day-to-day basis, "shall we carry on wiping the back-sides of our Folk, or shall we just give up if they don't or won't work with us?"

Do they want this or not?

Because we can't do it alone!

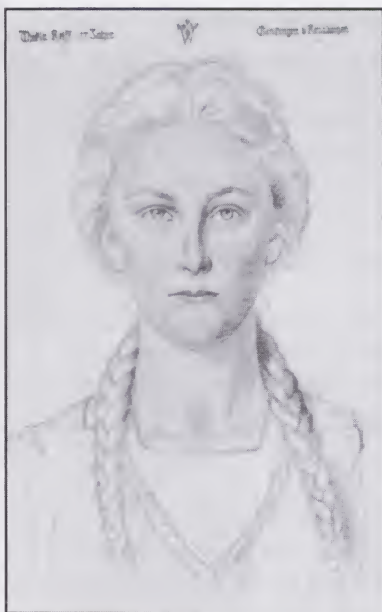

This Movement has the potential to be a strong and unified family of Folk, capable of protecting, maintaining and restoring our country to its former glory. However, 'This house will not clean itself!' The huge task we have ahead will take a huge commitment and that huge commitment cannot simply come from the same handful of people countrywide, time after time. That commitment has to be undertaken today! Now. By you - this moment! Will you be the one to sit back and groan when things are not advancing as quickly as you think they should? Or will you put yourself forward with an offer to help to get involved? Will you be the one to sit back and watch as your racial brothers and sisters working hard for our Cause, and dare to reap the glory of success with them when you have done nothing to share their burden? Notice I use the words, "our Cause" because it is Ours! But it cannot be ours without you first claiming it as your own.

If you have no time...give money, as much as you can. If you have no money...give time, as much as you can. Many times I have heard it said that, "people drift in and out of our organisation over time, they probably were not dedicated enough".

Well, I tell you this, those people who go out and recruit new members and supporters do a brilliant job. But that isn't enough. Those new members and supporters need to have a maintained relationship with our organisation. So those of you who say that you have nothing to offer us, help out - maintain those links. You can't start a relationship with anyone without sustaining it, or that person will drift away. It is up to you to keep the faith. To bind yourselves together as one unit countrywide or the family will fade and fall apart! There is so much you can offer.

So do it today!

Make our future your property.
We Will Have Our Country Back!

NATIONAL SOCIALIST
WOMENS' DAY

BUILDING AN N.S. FUTURE

The creation of a National Socialist state in Great Britain is the ultimate goal of British Movement, and in order to achieve the creation of a National Socialist 'New Order' in the UK, we must first create the political conditions by which this situation can be realised.

This will be a long and difficult struggle, but it can be done and for the future of our people it must be done. We must right the wrongs inflicted upon our people in the name of multi-racialism and multi-culturalism, we must regain the birth-right of our people taken from them by stealth and the lies of democratic politicians and Left-wing ideologists. So-called progressive thinkers and opinion makers who have corrupted our nation's psyche.

Building The National Socialist Revolution

Brick By Brick - Piece By Piece.

We Will Have Our Country Back!

To Build A National Socialist Society Here In Britain We Must Force A Change Of Mindset Within The British People. They Must Turn Their Backs On Consumerism And Debt Slavery. They Must Learn To Live With What They Need Not What The Corporate Ad Agencies Convince Them That They Have To Have.

BREAK THE BONDS OF DEBT - REJECT CONSUMERISM - BUILD THE N.S. FOLK COMMUNITY

Britain is floating on a sea of consumer debt; credit card debt, account overdrafts, bank loans, personal loans, higher purchase agreements and mortgages. The British people are enslaved by debt, debt which has been generated by the drive of materialism and mass consumerism, fuelled by deliberate marketing of goods and services on the buy now pay later strategy of banks, building societies and loan companies, capitalism and usury at its very worst.

Now the British economy is in trouble and employment is falling, but the debts remain - how much easier to control the population when they are in so much debt.

We, the British people have sleep-walked into debt slavery, we allowed the banks and financial services to direct us, to seduce us and then to start to change the way we manage our personal finances and banking. They want us to use plastic not cash, because that way they can better monitor our spending and general whereabouts. They want us to use On-line banking not the counters at High Street banks or Building Societies because it gives them better data collecting opportunities to monitor our spending patterns and purchasing habits. Now they are working towards eradicating cheques from the banking system because that suits their strategies not our banking requirements. Eventually they will seek to eradicate the use of cash because that will give them total control over the economy and private spending.

As National Socialists we must reject the materialist, consumerist mass debt economy. We should try to use cash whenever and wherever possible, avoid using the 'plastic' and On-Line banking if we can.

Create a small scale economic rebellion and stall their economic strategy at every opportunity.

" If we do not remove our youth from the morass of the present environment they will drown in it. Whoever refuses to see this, supports it and hence becomes an accomplice in the gradual prostitution of our future which, like it or not, lies in coming generations."

Adolf Hitler.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

The views and opinions expressed on this page represent the views of our readers and their publication does not indicate support or endorsement of those opinions or adoption as official British Movement policy.

Dear Broadsword,

I have been enjoying reading and studying the latest issue of 'Broadsword'. The usual excellent standard has been maintained. In particular I commend the following articles:- 'The Werewolf Column

'The British Elections of 2010. A BM Perspective.'

'Our Ancestors: The Normans'

'Blood and Biology' and 'Building an NS Future.'

I also found the 'Radical Opinions' article very informative, it contained details that I was not aware of previously. In addition the BMWD article 'Stand By Your Man' by the Rose is excellent, all true National Socialists should study this and take the message on board.

Keep Up the Good Work !

Hawkwood NS.

Dear Broadsword,

On page 17 of Broadsword no.39 HM of Glasgow has got John Lennon totally wrong. He did not despise the working class, in fact quite the reverse. The quote, "Fing Peasants" is his reply to the Zionist establishment of what they think of us (goyim).

Lennon donated millions to charity, to children and the homeless. He despised Lenin, Stalin and Mao as said in the song "Revolution". He also did not like his manager Brian Epstein, who was a Jew. HM needs to read 'The Protocols' to see what is happening in the world, it is all there to be seen !

Also books by David Icke - "Robots Rebellion" and the "Truth Shall Set You Free" - excellent books on the Freemason/Illuminati. Icke is despised by the Zionists.

Also the book "Transformation" by Cathy O'Brien, tells of massive control of the people, it also tells of the paedophiles who rape children on a regular basis. It claims that Walt Disney was one, as was Bob Hope.

The media mind control is very strong in TV, newspapers and the internet. the biggest pollutant is alcohol, a massive drug. Look at how many it controls and kills.

In the Truth

Dear Broadsword,

I am writing in response to the letter from N.S. Cymru in issue No. 39.

I agree with many of the points made therein and overall, NS Cymru has provided us with a realistic and rational appraisal of the current situation faced by British National Socialists, as well as the British Nationalist cause in general. However, I do feel that NS Cymru is being unduly pessimistic and defeatist.

N.S Cymru states that it is vital that the flame of National Socialism is kept alive, especially amongst the younger generation. I am under no illusions about the nature of our struggle, and I do not fantasise about the recreation of the 'Fourth Reich' in my lifetime. However, I passionately believe that National Socialism is the only real alternative to the so-called 'democratic system' and that National Socialism is the only political doctrine, philosophy and ideology which can challenge global capitalism and the New World Order. Thus I believe that we must ultimately achieve victory.

In order to spread our message, British Movement must attract members and supporters from all generations. We must give them some hope of victory. In many respects the current situation may seem bleak, but there are reasons to be cheerful. The global financial system has not recovered from the crash in 2008. The 'Euro-Zone' in particular faces serious economic problems and there are major problems with trade imbalances and currency exchange rates. Despite the 'Coalition's' so-called spending cuts, debt is still rising rapidly in the UK because of the interest payable on that debt. Unemployment will continue to rise and that will cause social unrest. The 'Old Gang' of Establishment politicians have no coherent policy for controlling immigration. Thus there will be serious pressures on the housing market, schools and the health service. This must also lead to social unrest, especially as the ethnic minorities are becoming more assertive and arrogant, especially the Muslims.

There are many other factors one could also mention that are making the world more volatile from the political and economic standpoint, for example rising oil and commodity prices; fuel, food and water insecurity and international terrorism.

So do not despair ! We may be paupers compared to our enemies, and lacking widespread popular support at present. However, there are situations and opportunities which we can exploit. We must use all means, including the new information technology, to spread our message.

History has shown that small groups of activists can bring about revolutions and regime change. Apparently invincible empires have imploded and rapidly collapsed; the former Soviet Union is a good recent example.

We must continue to dedicate ourselves to the Cause. We owe it to future generations to make sacrifices now.

We can and will have our country back !

 BROADSWORD Replies : Re: Tom. Nottingham.

While we take the point that John Lennon might not have despised the working-class, he was certainly no racial nationalist - he married Yoko Ono - a Japanese oriental and had a racially mixed son. Lennon did support certain Left Wing causes. As for the books Tom recommends we are not familiar with all of them and did not know about the allegations around Walt Disney and Bob Hope. Alcohol is a powerful drug, but its consumption has been part of British and European tradition and culture for centuries. Moderation is the answer there.

Asian Community Leader Who Was Not Actually Abducted By The BNP

Broadsword readers may remember the story back in 2009, when an Asian Community Leader, Noor Ramjanally claimed that he had been subject to a so-called 'hate campaign' by evil white racists who had sent him threatening letters and were behind an arson attack on his property. This all came to a head in August 2009 when Noor Ramjanally reported to Essex Police that on August 24th 2009 he had been kidnapped by a BNP gang from his home in Loughton, Essex and taken to Epping Forest where the evil racist gang had threatened him at knife point and warned him to stop organising Muslim religious activities.

All very shocking and naturally generated a lot of media-generated anti-racist outrage.

However there was noticeably less media-generated outrage in June 2010 when Noor Ramjanally appeared in Chelmsford Crown Court on charges of perverting the course of justice. Later still when the case drifted on the anti-racist interest seemed to have quietly died away completely.

It seems that Essex Police had secretly installed CCTV cameras to watch over Mr Ramjanally after his first claims of 'racist abuse'.

(Cameras installed at tax-payers' expense of course)

Unfortunately no one told Mr Ramjanally, who was filmed, NOT being kidnapped by the BNP but was filmed wandering around a well-known chain store at the time he was supposed to be held against his will by a racist gang. He was also shown on film wandering around the outskirts of Epping Forest making his 999 call.

So Noor Ramjanally has joined that ever growing body of non-white citizens who have falsely claimed to be victims of organised white racist thugs - this is a tradition that now stretches back into the 1960's and has been reported on several times before in Broadsword magazine - we wonder when the next case will crop up?

And will the mass media be as ready as ever to believe the far-fetched claims of the victim?
You bet they will !

'KKK' SNOWMAN UPSETS LIBERAL CITIZENS Hayden - Idaho USA

Kootenai County sheriff's deputies were called to investigate complaints about a Ku Klux Klan snowman that a so-called White Supremacist had built in his garden !

White Power activist Mark Eliseuson had built a 10 foot tall snowman in the shape of a hooded Klansman and equipped it with a giant noose.

The Sheriff's deputies demolished the snow sculpture and charged Mark Eliseuson with creating a public nuisance.

Stating that the snowman was "offensive to the senses and interfering with the comfort of the neighborhood."

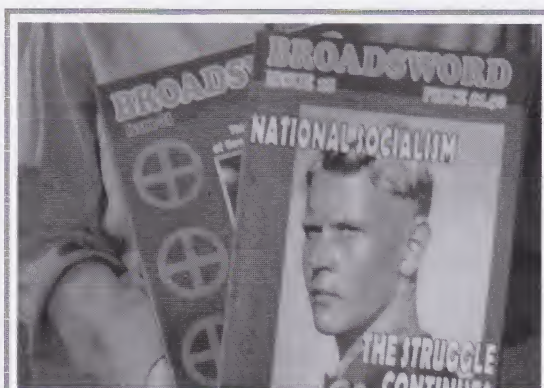

LEFT-WING POETS SAY THEY WILL 'Reclaim St. George from the Far-Right'

Andrew Motion, the former poet-laurate has thrilled Leftist chattering classes by claiming that he is leading a group of poets who are "exploring Englishness" and their aim is to make the image of 'Englishness' fit into modern multi-cultural Britain and to "reclaim St George, the patron saint of England and his flag, the Cross of st. George from far-Right groups".

One academic supporter of the project stated;

" Englishness is an embarrassed thing in all sorts of ways. But a bold, imaginative reclamation is necessary, particularly in the face of the far- right appropriation of symbols of Englishness."

How much political impact a group of privileged middle-class scribblers will have on the use of St George and his flag as a symbol of England remains to be seen.
